

ECHO OF ARUNACHAL

RGU VC pleaded to set up exam centre in DPGC, Kamki

ITANAGAR, Jul 15: Rajiv Gandhi University vice chancellor has been 'moved' to set up an MA entrance examination centre at Donyi Polo Govt College, Kamki, 28 Km away from Aalo, the headquarters of West Siang district. Pitching in this today, the Galo Students' Union (GSU) cited that the students from six districts namely Siang, Lepa Rada, Lower Siang, Shi Yomi, West Siang and Upper Subansiri will be largely benefitted with Aalo being strategically a suitable place. Donyi Polo Govt College can accommodate more than 2000 students in one go from DPGC (Kamki), Model College (Basar), St Franis De Sales College (Yejjo), North Eastern Frontier Technical University (undergraduate course), BEd College (Aalo), Teachers College (Aalo) and Model College (Daporijo), the Union said in defence of its demand. Further, the GSU urged the VC to approve the demand thereby paving way to open an MA examination centre at DPGC, Kamki from next session in the interest of providing equal opportunity to the students.

1. News published in:-Echo of Arunachal
2. On 16th July, 2019
3. Type:- Regional newspaper
4. Place: Itanagar, Arunachal Pradesh