

Mass plantation to mark Teachers' Day in RGU

RONOHILLS, Sept 04: The Department of Social Work, Rajiv Gandhi University conducted a plantation drive in the University campus today. The plantation drive was carried out to mark the Pre-Teachers' day celebration.

Vice-Chancellor, Professor Saket Kushwaha applauded the department for taking such an initiative to plant fruit bearing saplings. He further emphasized the students to plant more of saplings on the occasion of their birthday during every educational degree. He also further suggested and gave advice to the Department to take care of each saplings particularly as a symbol of generosity and love for nature towards the University.

The Deputy Registrar, Nangram Tuglik, a senior administrator of the University, has also expressed his gratitude and happiness on the August programme initiated by the Department of Social Work. The Head of the Department, Dr. Kaushalendra Pratap Singh informed the importance of the day that it was to commemorate the SWACHHTA HI SEVA campaign which actually begins from the 11th September but the Department of Social Work initiated it in advance to mark the auspicious day of Teacher's Day.

The program was attended by Gomar Basar, NSS Coordinator and other faculties of the Department of Social Work and the students along with PhD. Scholars.

1. News published in: - Arunachal Front
2. On 05 September 2019.
3. Type: Regional newspaper.
4. Place : Itanagar Arunachal Pradesh