20th Uni-Fest celebration concludes

RONO HILLS, Nov 10: The 20th Uni-Fest celebration which started on November 7 at the Rajiv Gandhi University here concluded today amidst fun and fare. This year's theme of the event was 'Striving towards Digitalization', and accordingly the participating students were divided into four houses namely Wi-fi House, 4G House, Cashless House and Smart class House. The four-day event saw various literary, sports and cultural events. Among others, the valedictory programme was attended by Union minister of Youth Affairs, Kiren Rijiju who in his deliberation called for a Pan Arunachal Identity and said that it should start from the RGU. He also informed the gathering about the initiatives that would be launched as part of the Constitutional Day celebration on November 26. Earlier, Rajiv Gandhi University Students' Union president Dopum Sonam in his speech emphasised on the importance of modernization and digitalization, especially for students, to remain competitive and updated.
