ITANAGAR, Nov 10: The 20th Uni-Fest celebration successfully today concluded.

The annual university festival started on November 7 and the valedictory programme was attended by Kiren Rijiju, MoS for state and youth affairs, as the chief guest.

The motto of this year's Unifest celebration being "striving towards digitalization" the participants in the event were divided among 4 houses namely Wi-fi House, 4G House, Cashless House and Smart class House.

Different events related to Literary, Sports and Cultural events had been held respectively with students turning up in huge numbers to participate in various events.

The president, RGUSU Dopum Sonam in his speech stated the importance of modernization and digitalization urged the students of RGU to strive towards the said goal to remain ever competitive and updated in the 21st century and to improve the overall quality of education.

Rijiju in his address informed the gathering about the initiatives of the govt of India to be launched about the duties of citizens while enjoying the rights granted to citizens during the celebration of constitutional day on November 26th, 2019.

He also emphasized on the need of pan-Arunachal identity and said that it should start from RGU to set an ideal example. He requested everyone to work for fitness and developing the culture. He further added that excellence and achievements in sports is only possible through the culture of fitness from home to university and community level.
