

RGU team visits World Book Fair 2020

NEW DELHI, Jan 7: A team of Rajiv Gandhi University (RGU) Library Book Selection Committee is on a visit to New Delhi World Book Fair 2020 at Pragati Maidan currently underway. The fair, which began on January 4, will continue till January 12. The team includes RGU vice-chancellor Prof Saket Kushwaha, Prof in-charge University Library Prof PK Acharya, former RGU librarian Prof Maltesh Motebennur, HoD Physics Prof Sanjeev Kumar, Sociology Dr Bikas Bage, former director-general National Library, Kolkata, Dr PY Rajendra Kumar, RGU librarian Dr AK Sharma, and others. The committee will select good general nature, reference print books, e-resources from renowned publishers and aggregators of national and international repute. Prof Kushwaha has mooted opening a separate community library section enriching collection of children and women recreational books for the use of campus women folks and their children, so that the parents can bring their kids and inculcate the best reading habits and visit of libraries in their initial stages. Prof Kushwaha, who himself was a voracious reader during his school days, selected some books from reputed publishers and book vendors. During the visit, Prof Kushwaha also released a book titled, “Philosophy of Indian culture”, in 3 vol published by Kitabwale Delhi and written by former IPS officer Dr Diwakar.

1. News published in: - The Dawnlit Post
2. On 08 January 2020.
3. Type: Regional newspaper.
4. Place : Itanagar Arunachal Pradesh