SMART THEATRE AT RGU SCREENS 'PARIKSHA PE CHARCHA' LIVE

Rono Hills, Jan 20: Live screening of 'Pariksha pe Charcha 2020' was telecasted from Talkatora Stadium, New Delhi here at the Smart Theatre of Rajiv Gandhi University's Department of Computer Science and Engineering today. This was the third edition of 'Pariksha pe Charcha' where Prime Minister Narendra Modi interacted with the students from across the nation on issues related to examination and other topics of education. While interacting with the students ahead of board examinations and opining that good marks in exams are not everything, PM also felt the need to get out of the 'exams are everything' mindset. Responding to a question, he said that it is necessary to add enthusiasm in every aspect of life and a temporary setback doesn't mean success will not come and might also mean the best is yet to come. At the live event at the national capital, 2,000 students including 1000 who have been selected through an essay competition along with teachers and parents took part. RGU too witnessed a full house where students from various departments attended. Vice Chancellor I/c Professor PK Panigrahi, Registrar Professor Tomo Riba, Deans, Heads, faculty members of various departments, along with officials were also present during the live screening.
