

EASTERN SENTINEL

RGU SEMINAR THROWS LIGHT ON 'MODERNITY VS INDIGENEITY'

Rono Hills, Mar 5: A two-day national seminar titled 'Modernity and Indigeneity: Shifting Perspectives in Culture, Literature and Language' commenced on Thursday here at the Rajiv Gandhi University organized by its Department of English. The seminar was inaugurated by the Chief Guest Padmashree Y.D. Thongchi, the renowned writer of the Northeast, RGU Registrar Professor Tomo Riba as Guest of Honour, Dean of Academic Affairs Professor S.K. Singh as Guest Speaker, Keynote Speaker from Guwahati University Professor Asha Kuthari Chaudhuri and the varsity's Dean of Languages Professor Oken Lego by lighting the lamp. Chief Guest and other dignitaries spoke at length on various aspects on modernity and indigeneity in their interpretative understandings. HoD Dr. K.C. Mishra and seminar convener Dr. Doyir Ete were in charge of conducting the sessions. Both the inaugural and academic sessions being intellectually vibrant were enjoyed by a good number of delegates and participants from all over the country.

1. News published in: - EASTERN SENTINEL
2. On 06 March 2020
3. Type: Regional newspaper.
4. Place: Itanagar Arunachal Pradesh.